Grave Charges Against Secretary Fletcher-He Misnaparopriates $33,000-Proceedings in Conventions;
(Special Disputch to the Courier-Journal.)
Nasnytial, Feb. 17.—There was some sensation in the city to-day regarding certifis facts said to be in possession of the committee of the House appointed to investigate the disposal of agricultural school scrip, which have leaked out. They are in the effect that the Secretary of State, Mr. Fletcher, has misaparopriated the State funds to the amount of over $30,000. It is altered that, in the disposal of said scrip, Fletcher and Representative Brosson refused bids of $3 to 90 cents and soid it screttly, for 90%, to an Ohio banker asmed Lewis. Two of the bidders, Messrs. Marr and Sandford, live in this city. The inference is that there was collusion between Fletcher and Brosson and the Ohio banker, and the committee claim to have positive proof to this effect, as they have recently been in correspondence with a number of bankers who were then interested in the matter. It is further alleged by the committee, and they claim to have positive and official proof, that Fletcher charged over $2,000 for affixing the official seal to these bon is, when the law required bim to attach the seal without fee. A resolution, wis about to be introduced to-day to lunguach Fletcher, but it was decided not to do so, as it is alleged he is ambitions to be thus made a marity, and especiality as his official exerce.

Fietcher, Dut it was necessarily as his official career will terminate in a couple of months. It is alleged, however, that criminal proceedings will be at once instituted against him. The committee are still gathering testimory, and will not be able to report for a few days. Fletcher has recently been making savage oneshaught on the Legislature and Convention, which is said to find its expinantion in couring outside sympathy, in order to break the force of the grave charges brought against him.

HENDRICKS. GOOD ADVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH BY AN IN-DIANA DEMOCRAT.

THE WORK AHEAD.

Ma. President And Fallow-Citiens: I thank you for the welcome which you have extended to me on this occasion. The condition of any health, if there were nothing class to prevent me, would not allow me to attempt to make an extended speech to-night. Only the south and the south bank of the Ohio river.

A make of seeling or gratify a desire long centerianed of seeling or gratify a desire long centerianed of seeling of the question at the law agitated the public mind, and that I might judge by personal observation, as far as I could, of the correctness of the views I have entertained on the public issues in which I have taken a part. But when I left my home in Indiana, I did not expect, to any extent whalever, to participate in any public discussion, and I shall not now attempt to excupy your attention further than to submit a few remarks. But even if I were to night to attempt to make an argument on the questions of the day, coming as I do from long the public of the pu the discharge of his duty to his country. It is the induced to consider how important in the second to the financial affairs of the control to the induced payments and it is the induced payment and it is the induced payment and it is the control to the control well-consucred executives, showing the ingentieman now in Congress, showing the inportant relation which Southern products bear to the general commerce of the country.

In the years 1887-8-9, the entire exports from the United States amounted to $1,305, 600,000. Of that thirteen hundred mittions, about $181,000,000 was of gold and silver; that being deducted, leaves $1,127,000,000 of the products of the about of the country which were exported during those three years. Of that cleven hundred and twenty-seven milions, there was exported directly from the ports of the South, and of Southern products from Northern porus, $506,494,501; of that wast ann. a little less than one million dollars

Hons, there was exported directly from the ports of the South, and of Southern points of the South and of Southern points of the South and of Southern points of the Southern points of the South and the second and the second and the second and silver, 8506, 487, 050 can be cauted by the South, white the North (excluding gold and silver, 8506, 487, 050 can be contributed by the South, white the North (excluding gold and silver) contributed $331. 483, 361. Thus, it appears that of the entire exports of the coautry, exclusive of specie, during the years 187.8-9, the products of the South constitute fifty-five per cent.

Disaster, Skill, and

THE EVENT.

To day, February 13, 1870, the completion of the great bridge over the Oblo river at this point, one of the most stupendous enterprises of the inhelenth century, will be officially of the inhelenth century, will be officially enounced, and the structure opened as a second of the inhelenth century, will be officially enounced, and the structure opened as a second of the structure.

mark is 10.0% feet (low-water mark in this channel being 6% feet lower than in the middle clannel.) From here the grade descends at the rate of 70 feet per mule, reaching the northern abutment at a distance of 700 feet from pier No. 21 at an elevation of 35 feet above the natural surface of the earth. The grade of the Indiana approach continues at the same rate of descent, reaching the surface of the earth 2,500 feet from the northern abutment. The superstructure of the approach consists of an earth embankment.

The superstructure of the bridge is placed below the grade of the track recent over the Krobucky and Indiana channels. The former part of the superstructure over the middle channel is 90 feet above tow water mark, and over the Indiana channel of 9% feet above tow.

Finally, Judge Burnett offered a substitute granting the Beargrass route. It was the same as that offered by the same gentleman several meetings since. The chair decided it morder, and, upon an appeal being taken, was sustained.

Mr. Duerson spoke for an hour in favor of the river route, during which time points of order of all kinds were raised, and little was done of any consequence. Upon taking his cent, a done members arose and clamorously Burnett offered a * order of all kinds were raised, and little was done of any consequence. Upon taking his sea, a dozen members arose and clamorously claimed the attention of the chair. Mr. Tapp was allowed the floor, and moved the previous question. A motion to adjourn was then made, and, the years and mays having boun taken, was lost by a vote of 13 to 11.

The previous question was then carried, and the Council proceeded to a vote on the substitute offered or Judge Barnett.

A flibustering movement then occupied the rest of the evening, and the Council adjourned in a furure at 10 clock.
